

What's on in Normandy?

Normandy is reunited this year! Since January 1st Lower and Upper Normandy are now part of the same region called Normandie

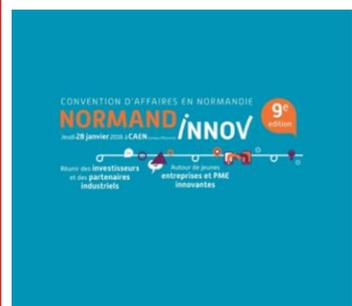

TOURISM
CULTURE
ECONOMY
SPORTS

The Cadeaux d'Art Exhibition, displayed at the Tourist Office until 31st January in Villedieu-les-Poêles (la Manche) exhibits creations from 19 local craftsmen, all for sale! It is the perfect occasion to discover the lovely city of Villedieu-les-Poêles, settlement of the Military Order of Malta, renowned since the Middle Ages for its copper industry, its bells making factory and which is nowadays home of many craftsmen and metal artists. More info at www.tourisme-villedieu.com/index.htm?lang=en

The Illusionists' Society (Le Cercle des Illusionnistes) is an award winning theatre play performed Thursday 21st January in Mortagne-au-Perche (Orne). The play is homage to 2 of the greatest's illusionists of all time: George Méliès, father of the special effects and Jean-Eugène Robert-Houdin the "renovator of modern magic". Join this magical adventure which mixes live performances, cinema and beautiful changing sets. More info: www.scenenationale61.fr

The regional business convention Normand' Innov is taking place Thursday 26th January at the Campus Efficiencie, near Caen, in Colombelles (Calvados). It aims to present the latest innovations made by young Norman companies and help them meet new business and financial partners. 15 innovative businesses will have 10 min each to present their skills to the audience. B to B meetings will be scheduled during the convention. Info & registration at www.normandinov.com

The 16th Norman Raid Competition is taking place on January 30th & 31st in Louviers (Eure). This though sporting event is a night orienteering trail where every competitor has to be self-sufficient. 99% of the path goes through the woods and you may choose between two options: a 20 km solo roundtrip or a 47km team trail. Be careful, if you choose the team trail, every member of the team has to make it to the end! More info and booking on www.raid-normand.com

