

What's on in Normandy?

TOURISM

The Festival Normandie Impressionniste will be held from April 16th to September 26th, everywhere in Normandy, with a precise theme "Impressionism in portraits". Though portraying a period in the nineteenth century, the Festival is also interested in contemporary versions of the portrait, like selfies. It explores the notion of representation, of oneself and others, as well as its value, message and significance 140 years on. Info on: www.normandie-impressionniste.eu

CULTURE

The 20th Edition of the Easter Musical Festival will take place from April 23rd to May 7th, in Deauville (Calvados). Once again you may enjoy a series of classical music concerts with pieces by Mozart, Schubert, Ravel, Schumann Bach and many more! Have a look at the programme on the website: www.musiqueadeauville.com/20efestivaldepaques/

Also, don't miss the Jazz sous les Pommiers (Jazz Music) Festival in Coutances (La Manche) starting on April 30th! More info on our May newsletter or on www.jazzsouslespommiers.com/en/

ECONOMY

The Eco-Friendly Housing Festival the 2nd and 3rd April in Nocé (L'Orne) will present all the information you need to know to build and live eco-friendly! Many professionals stallholders are showing their products and techniques, and various events are organised throughout the week-end, such as conferences, local market, concerts, kids activities and also a dramatised lecture « Moi, la fin du monde, le prix de l'essence et le temps qu'il fera » to raise awareness on climate change and carbon constraint! SPORTS

The Deauville CPEDI (Para-equestrian Dressage Competition) will take place, from the 8th to the 10th of April, at the Pôle International du Cheval in Deauville (Calvados). Admire the performances of para-equestrian competitors! At less than 5 months from the 2016 Rio Paralympic Games, it will be at the core of the Olympic preparations for the athletes who will be coming to display their prowess.
