

What's on in Normandy?

This is England is a short film festival dedicated to British cinema held in Rouen (Seine-Maritime) from 12 to 20 November. The festival awards prizes to the best of a selection of short films from fictions, animated films or documentaries. Since 2012, the festival has grown and now offers screenings, talks, concerts, plays and a retrospective of feature films.

Find out more here: This is England

And also: Planches Contact, photography festival until 1st January in Deauville (Calvados), St Catherine's Agriculture Fair from 19 to 21 November in Briouze (Orne), Games & Toys Festival from 21 to 27 November in Coutances (Manche)

In 30 years, Les Boréales has established itself as the most important festival dedicated to Nordic culture in Europe. Every year, the event takes us on a journey through different territories. From 10 to 20 November, Sweden will be at the heart of the festival. Music, food, theatre... discover Swedish culture through more than 150 events all around Normandy.

Find out more here: Les Boréales

And also: Joutes Poétiques, poetry competition on 5 & 6 November in Granville (Manche), Les Rendez-vous Soniques, music festival from 8 to 13 November in Saint-Lô (Manche), Musique sous les embruns festival from 11 to 13 November in Port-en-Bessin (Calvados), Les planches de Bavent, theatre festival from 19 to 27 November in Bavent (Calvados)

Herring festivals are taking over the northern coast of Normandy in November. The fish is king in Seine-Maritime and is celebrated with food, music, markets where fishermen sell their catch and even the election of the Herring Queen, a tradition coming from Fécamp. The oldest herring festival with its own traditions is taking place in Dieppe on 19 & 20 November.

See more information and dates here: Fêtes du Hareng

And also: Apple & cider festivals and Scallops festivals in November around Normandy, Country Fair until 13 November around Normandy, Territorial Innovation Challenge on 18 November in Rouen (Seine-Maritime), Advent Market on 19 & 20 November in Putanges (Orne), Press & Communication Trophies on 24 November in Louviers (Eure)

From 24 to 27 November, Equi Seine will be taking place in Rouen (Seine-Maritime). This event, held for the 22nd time in 2022, will give you the opportunity to witness a jumping competition and to discover all about the world of horseback riding. With more than 60 exhibitors, Equi Seine has become the number 1 fair about horses in Normandy.

Find out more here : Equi Seine

Don't miss the Normandy canoe-kayak slalom Championship on 5 & 6 November in Beaumont-le-Roger (Eure), Equestrian Show until 6 November in Le-Pin-au-Haras (Orne), Autumn Run Festival on 6 November in Muids (Eure), Sports Nature Festival on 10 & 11 November in Montilly-sur-Noireau (Orne), La Traversée des Vallées, Trail on 19 November in Longueville-sur-Scie (Seine-Maritime)

TOURISM

CULTURE

ECONOMY

SPORTS