What's on in Normandy?

The D-Day Festival returns to Normandy's landing beaches from 31 May until 15 June. Visitors can enjoy festive and cultural events including paratroopers' demonstrations, parades of military vehicles, fireworks, book fairs, exhibitions, reconstitutions of military camps, dances... Celebrating freedom is at the heart of the D-Day festival every year!

Discover the full programme here: D-Day Festival

And also: Cabourg Romantic Film Festival from 11 to 15 June in Cabourg (Calvados), Music Day on 21 June across France, Maritime Weekend from 27 to 29 June in Caen (Calvados), Viva Cité, street arts festival, from 27 to 29 June in Sotteville-lès-Rouen (Seine-Maritime)

From 6 to 8 June, the French Ministry of Culture invites you to visit 2,200 parks and gardens across France and around 600 gardens in twenty other countries, including in Jersey and Guernsey. On this occasion, many professionals — gardeners, owners, landscape designers, botanists, guides... — will be on hand to share their passion for gardens and their expertise with visitors. Let's Meet at the gardens!

Find out more here: Rendez-vous aux jardins

And also: Botanik'Art, contemporary art festival from 7 to 9 June around Granville (Manche), Cap sur le Cotentin, Norman festival from 13 to 15 June in Briquebec-en-Cotentin (Manche), Archéo-Jazz from 25 to 28 June in Blainville-Crevon (Seine-Maritime)

On 29 June, Campagn'Art returns to Fermanville (Manche), where local residents open their gardens as temporary galleries for a unique day of art and nature. Stroll through lush green spaces transformed by painters, sculptors, and photographers, and experience the cultural heart and creativity of the Val de Saire's artists.
