What's on in Normandy?

Every summer, the Mont-Saint-Michel Abbey (Manche) lights up and invites you to daydream! In 2026, it has reinvented itself once again with an original production: 'COLORAMA', in which colour is the central theme of this night-time experience that will last until 31 August. A wonderful experience unveiling the abbey's treasures in a poetic atmosphere.

And also, Light show on Bayeux Cathedral until 29 August (Calvados) and on Rouen Cathedral (Seine-Maritime) until 19 September, A summer in Le Havre until 20 September in Le Havre (Seine-Maritime), Normandie Impressionniste until 27 September around Normandy

Les Traversées de Tatihou is a unique maritime music festival taking place from 12 to 16 August on Tatihou Island, in Saint-Vaast-la-Hougue (Manche). Timed to coincide with the tides, the festival invites visitors to cross on foot at low tide to enjoy an eclectic programme of traditional, folk and world music in an exceptional coastal setting.
