What's on in Normandy?

For the 43rd edition of the European Heritage Days taking place on 19 & 20 September, two themes are in the spotlight: “Heritage of Photography” and “Heritage at Risk: Revive, Resist, Reimagine”. Over two days across France, historical sites open their doors for the public to discover an heritage they may have never been able to access before. Jersey is taking part again in 2026. Have a look at the programme here: European Heritage Days

And also, A summer in Le Havre (Seine-Maritime) until 20 September, Light show on Rouen Cathedral (Seine-Maritime) until 26 September, International Fair featuring Italy from 18 to 27 September in Caen (Calvados)

Every September, the Côte Fleurie (Calvados) comes alive with cinema, thanks to the Deauville American Film Festival, taking place from 4 to 13 September, with 80 films across nine categories. In Trouville, Off-Courts, running from 5 to 11 September, celebrates short films and features a lively festival village, offering filmmaking, make-up, dance and other creative workshops. Discover more here: American Film Festival & Off-Courts

And also: Normandie Impressionniste until 27 September around Normandy, Via Aeterna, music festival from 13 September to 4 October in the Mont-Saint-Michel Bay area (Manche), Cidre & Dragon, fantasy festival on 19 & 20 September in Merville-Franceville-Plage (Calvados)

The Sainte-Croix Fair in Lessay (Manche) takes place from 11 to 13 September. It is the largest of the six millennial fairs happening in Normandy, attracting around 100,000 visitors over three days. You can find a funfair, a rotisserie alley, exhibitions, animals, equestrian shows and so much more... Find out all about it here: Foire Sainte-Croix and book your day trip with Manche Iles Express - bookings@manche-iles.com

And also: Dahlias & Gardens Festival until 27 September in Coutances (Manche), Earth and Rural Life Festival on 6 September in Sartilly (Manche) Saint-Macé Fair from 26 to 28 September in Saint-James (Manche)

On 12 & 13 September, Sainte-Mère-Église (Manche) will host the first Cyclosporive Mont-Blanc. With road and gravel routes for all levels, the event combines cycling, stunning coastal landscapes and Normandy's rich history, with a lively village bringing together cycling brands, local producers, artisans and businesses.
