What's on in Normandy?

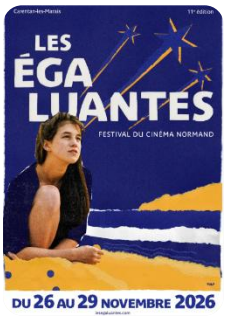

TOURISM

Les Boréales brings the spirit of the Nordic countries to Caen (Calvados) and across Normandy through literature, film, music, theatre, dance and visual arts. With Norway in the spotlight this year, from 12 to 22 November, the festival invites audiences to discover the region's creativity, stories and traditions through a diverse programme of events and encounters.
Have a look at the programme here: Les Boréales

And also, Cuisinez la Normandie until 8 November across Normandy, Joutes Poétiques Granvillaises, slam poetry tournament on 7 & 8 November in Granville (Manche), Ad Hoc, performing-arts & family festival, from 28 November to 5 December in Le Havre (Seine-Maritime)

CULTURE

From 26 to 29 November, Les Égaluantes brings four days of Norman cinema, culture and encounters to Carentan-les-Marais (Manche), showcasing a diverse selection of films, documentaries, short films and festive events. This year, Jersey and Guernsey will be the guests of honour with 5 films screened and a special tasting offered on 28 November.
