

What's on in Normandy?

Les Boréales is a festival celebrating Northern culture in Normandy from 15 to 26 November. In 2023, Iceland is at the centre of the festival with 150 events including more than 90 free events in Caen (Calvados) and 30 other towns around Normandy. Cinema, literature, music, exhibitions, dance, circus... this festival is a cultural dream not to be missed!

Have a look at Les Boréales to know more

And also: Festival marionettes N'Caux, puppet festival from 31 October until 5 November in Goderville and around (Seine-Maritime), Festiv'Art from 3 to 5 November in Louviers (Eure), Saint-Martin Fair on 10 November in Aumale (Seine-Maritime), Cider Festival on 11 & 12 November in Sap-en-Auge (Orne), Croq' Festival, food fair from 17 to 19 November in Caen (Calvados)

Les Egaluantes is a film festival happening in Carentan-les-Marais (Manche) from 23 to 26 November. In the Norman language, “égaluer” means: “to dazzle”, a great promise for this festival with a great programme of films shot in Normandy or having a link with this beautiful region. One film from Guernsey is part of the programme this year, don't miss out!

Find out more here: Les Egaluantes

And also: Les Rendez-Vous Soniques, music festival from 3 to 11 November in Saint-Lô (Manche), This is England, film festival from 11 to 19 November in Rouen (Seine-Maritime), Travel Festival on 18 & 19 November in Quettehou (Manche), Du Grain à Démoudre, film festival from 18 to 26 November in Gonfreville-l'Orcher, Montivilliers, Le Havre and Harfleur (Seine-Maritime)

Le Goût du Large (Taste of the Sea) is a festival celebrating fishing and seafood taking place in Port-en-Bessin (Calvados) on 11 & 12 November. This small fishing town is famous for its scallops that will be on offer at every local restaurant. A music festival, old sailing ships and various activities will also be there for everyone's enjoyment!

More info here: Le Goût du Large

And also: Cuisinez la Normandie, cooking workshops until 12 November around Normandy, Oceans' Forum on 4 November in Coutances (Manche), National Meetings for Industrial and Territorial Ecology on 22 & 23 November in Le Havre (Seine-Maritime), Scallops festival around Normandy: 18 & 19 November in Dieppe & Courseulles-sur-Mer, 25 & 26 in Grancamp-Maisy

Before embarking for the next World Cup, the French women's handball national team is hosting a tournament in Caen (Calvados) on 24 & 26 November. France, Senegal, Cameroon, and South Korea will meet in Caen's brand-new sports arena to compete and fine-tune the final details of their preparation for the World Cup.

Find out more here: Tournoi de France

Don't miss the Montilly Sports Nature Festival on 10 & 11 November in Montilly-sur-Noireau (Orne), Orienteering Vir'é Nocturne on 11 November in Vire (Calvados), Float Tube Fishing Competition on 12 November in Cany-Barville (Seine-Maritime)

TOURISM

CULTURE

ECONOMY

SPORTS